Mayor David Alvey and Archbishop Joseph Naumann, D.D. Receive COVID-19 Vaccinations at Kansas National Guard Armory Site

The Unified Government Public Health Department announced that Unified Government Mayor and CEO David Alvey and Archbishop Joseph Naumann, D.D. with the Archdiocese of Kansas City in Kansas both received their first COVID-19 vaccine today. The Mayor and Archbishop Naumann were vaccinated at the UGPHD's vaccination site located in the Kansas National Guard facility.

"The importance of vaccinations to curb the spread of COVID-19, to protect the health of our community, and help us get back on the road to recovery cannot be overstated," said Mayor David Alvey. "Everyone who lives in Wyandotte County over the age of 16 is now eligible to be vaccinated, and I'm pleased to be joined here today by Archbishop Joseph Naumann in an effort to highlight the importance of vaccinations for our entire community, to assure people that it is safe and effective, and to convey the importance of these efforts in helping defeat this pandemic, which has already caused so much pain and disruption in our lives."

Archbishop Naumann issued the following statement concerning COVID-19 vaccines, addressing some concerns that Catholics and other faith groups may have with some vaccines:

"First of all, no one should be forced or required to be vaccinated. However, in Catholic understanding, the human person is made in the Divine Image and our bodies are designed to be a temple of God. Thus, we have a responsibility to care for the health of our bodies as well as to protect the health of others.

"I am not a medical expert, but I trust the vast majority of medical experts who advise vaccination for the health of our community. With the widespread availability of the vaccines, we have seen dramatic drops in the number of positive cases, hospitalizations and deaths from Covid. The vaccines are not only helping to prevent the spread of Covid, but they also are allowing businesses, churches and schools to reopen and return to normal. This is beneficial to the mental, emotional and economic health of individuals and the community

"From a moral perspective it is morally permissible to receive all of the current vaccines, even though the Moderna and Pfizer vaccines used a cell line derived from an abortion to test the efficacy of the vaccines. In Catholic moral teaching receiving these vaccines is not formal cooperation with the abortion that occurred fifty years ago, nor with the unethical taking of the cells from the aborted child. The Johnson and Johnson and Astra Zeneca vaccines used a cell line derived from an abortion in their production and development.

Receiving these vaccines also does not involve formal cooperation with abortion or the unethical retrieving of cells from an aborted child.

"I urge Pharmaceutical companies and our government health officials to develop vaccines that are not even remotely connected to abortion. It is not scientifically necessary to use the cell lines developed from abortion. I urge them to develop and provide in the future untainted vaccines."

Anyone age 16 and older who lives in Wyandotte County is currently eligible to be vaccinated, with or without an appointment. To help those who want appointments, the Unified Government Public Health Department (UGPHD) just launched a new online tool that allows people to schedule their COVID-19 vaccination at their convenience.

How to Schedule a Vaccine Appointment Online
1. Go to WycoVaccines.org, and click on the blue button that says, "Click here to schedule an appointment online."

2. Fill out pertinent contact information.

3. Select a preferred vaccination site. A calendar will then be displayed with available dates.

4. Select a date to see available appointment times, then click the time you would like to schedule.

5. Once the vaccination appointment is scheduled, the application shows a confirmation, along with any additional instructions.

6. When coming in for your appointment, you will be asked to show proof of that you live in Wyandotte County, such as a piece of mail addressed to you, drivers' license, or similar.

Please note that when users book an appointment using the Self-Scheduling Tool, that means they will be vaccinated within the hour of their appointment time. For example, if a user selects "10 a.m." as their appointment time, they will be vaccinated between 10 a.m. and 11 a.m. on their selected date.
