Consumer Corner: Military Consumer Protection Month

By Derek Schmidt,
Kansas Attorney General

Americans recently celebrated our Independence, pausing to mark the nation's 246th birthday and honoring those who have served our nation in war and peace to defend our freedoms. July is also Military Consumer Protection Month, a time when we remind military families and veterans to be watchful for the hazards posed by scammers and fraudsters who unscrupulously prey on those who have given much to their country.

The Kansas Attorney General's Office supports our military men and women and their families through consumer protection efforts. The Kansas Consumer Protection Act provides extra protection for members of the armed forces on active duty, in the National Guard or armed forces reserves, an immediate family member of a military member, a veteran, or the surviving spouse of a veteran. Resources are available to help navigate a variety of financial and other personal issues, including considerations before establishing a power of attorney and protecting your identification while you are deployed. A link to those resources can be found at www.inyourcorner-kansas.org/military.

The State of Kansas provides many benefits for military servicemembers, spouses, and veterans.

Kansas Military Personnel: Kansas residents on active military duty may qualify for exemption from property taxation in Kansas on up to two personal vehicles they legally own, provided Kansas is their permanent home of record. Non-Kansas military personnel have the option of registering in the Kansas county in which they reside or in their home state of record. If the military servicemember registers in the state of Kansas, they may be eligible for exemption from property taxation. Note that this exemption applies to property taxes only, not sales tax. Check with your county treasurer for documentation requirements, or visit the Kansas Department of Revenue website for more information.

Military members and veterans may be eligible for federal protections, which help ensure our veterans and military families are treated fairly and receive the benefits they have rightfully deserved. Some of those protections and services include:

Veteran benefits: The veterans' benefits application process is a free service. There is never a fee to apply, and many organizations have Veterans Service Officers who will assist with the application process at no cost to the veteran. Go to www.ebenefits.va.gov/ebenefits/vso-search to find one in your area. Do not pay or give any personal information to anyone who contacts you and says they may be able to help you claim additional government benefits by overhauling your investment holdings. In addition, veterans should never be charged to access their military records or government forms. Veterans can also get credible information on how to qualify for benefits by contacting your state veterans' affairs agency. In Kansas, that agency is the Kansas Commission on Veterans Affairs at www.keva.ks.gov. The National Association of State Directors of Veterans Affairs maintains a website at <https://nasdva.us> with a directory of state agencies and offers helpful information about applying for benefits.

If you would like to learn more about veteran benefits, contact a local Veteran Service Representative or call Kansas Commission on Veterans Affairs Office (KCVAO) at their toll free central office number (800) 513-7731. As veteran advocates, KCVAO assists veterans and their families with obtaining the benefits they have earned as a result of a veteran's honorable military service.

Servicemembers Civil Relief Act: Servicemembers Civil Relief Act (SCRA) is a law that provides legal and financial protections when a person is called to active military duty. The rights and protections include:

- Right to the 6 percent interest rate cap. This law limits the amount of interest on certain financial obligations incurred prior to military service to no more than 6 percent per year.

- Right to protections in payment. The SCRA protects servicemembers and their spouse or children from loss of benefits due to failing to pay rent, loans, mortgages, or insurance policies.

- Right to terminate residential lease when a military member receives orders sending them to a new duty station for at least 90 days.

- Protection from certain default judgments, foreclosures, and repossessions.

- Protection from the execution of liens on servicemembers' property (such as a storage lien, mechanic's lien, or a lien by a towing company) without a court order while member is in the military service, and for 90 days thereafter.

- According to Kansas law, a court cannot use the deployment or possible deployment of the custodial parent as the sole factor to consider a change in child custody. Seek private legal advice for your individual family situation.

Employment: The Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act (USERRA) protects servicemembers' and veterans' civilian employment rights. Unless an exception applies, servicemembers have the right to re-employment in their prior civilian jobs. Servicemembers also have the right to be restored to the position and benefits they would have attained had they been at their civilian job instead of serving in the military. If servicemembers do not qualify for the escalated position, the employer must place them in a position for which they do qualify which is most nearly approximate to the escalator position. USERRA also protects against discrimination and retaliation based on military service, as well as provides rights to continue health insurance. The U.S. Department of Labor, Veterans Employment and Training Service (VETS) investigates and resolves complaints of USERRA violations.

Charity scams: Fraudulent veterans' charities are sometimes used to scam unsuspecting consumers. Often, scammers use the name of a reputable charity or a name that closely resembles a reputable charity meant to confuse consumers. A fraudulent charity may be reluctant to provide information about its identity, mission, costs, and how it uses donations. A number of organizations provide information about the trustworthiness and prior track record of charitable organizations. The Kansas Charitable Organizations and Solicitations Act (KCOSA) requires most charitable organizations to register with the state prior to soliciting.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION No. 5003

A PROPOSITION to amend the bill of rights of the constitution of the state of Kansas by adding a new section thereto stating that there is no constitutional right to abortion, and reserving to the people the ability to regulate abortion through the elected members of the legislature of the state of Kansas.

WHEREAS, This proposition to amend the bill of rights of the constitution of the state of Kansas shall be known and may be cited as the Value Them Both Amendment.

Now, therefore:

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Kansas, two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate concurring therein:

Section 1. The following proposition to amend the constitution of the state of Kansas shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the state for their approval or rejection: The bill of rights of the constitution of the state of Kansas is hereby amended by adding a new section to read as follows:

“§ 22. Regulation of abortion. Because Kansans value both women and children, the constitution of the state of Kansas does not require government funding of abortion and does not create or secure a right to abortion. To the extent permitted by the constitution of the United States, the people, through their elected state representatives and state senators, may pass laws regarding abortion, including, but not limited to, laws that account for circumstances of pregnancy resulting from rape or incest, or circumstances of necessity to save the life of the mother.”

Sec. 2. The following statement shall be printed on the ballot with the amendment as a whole:

“Explanatory statement. The Value Them Both Amendment would affirm there is no Kansas constitutional right to abortion or to require the government funding of abortion, and would reserve to the people of Kansas, through their elected state legislators, the right to pass laws to regulate abortion, including, but not limited to, in circumstances of pregnancy resulting from rape or incest, or when necessary to save the life of the mother.

“A vote for the Value Them Both Amendment would affirm there is no Kansas constitutional right to abortion or to require the government funding of abortion, and would reserve to the people of Kansas, through their elected state legislators, the right to pass laws to regulate abortion.

“A vote against the Value Them Both Amendment would make no changes to the constitution of the state of Kansas, and could restrict the people, through their elected state legislators from regulating abortion by leaving in place the recently recognized right to abortion.”

Sec. 3. This resolution, if approved by two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives, and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate shall be entered on the journals, together with the yeas and nays. The secretary of state shall cause this resolution to be published as provided by law and shall cause the proposed amendment to be submitted to the electors of the state at a special election which is hereby called on August 2, 2022, pursuant to section 1 of article 14 of the constitution of the state of Kansas, to be held in conjunction with the primary election held on such date.
