Kansas City, Kansas Public Library opens Imprinting the West: Manifest Destiny, Real And Imagined on September 1

Throughout the nineteenth century as Americans pushed west toward the Pacific, they were fascinated by westward expansion in North America. Printed imagery—lithographs and engravings—played an important role in the dissemination of knowledge and understanding about the West and its inhabitants. Now visitors to Kansas City, Kansas Public Library's new exhibition, Imprinting the West: Manifest Destiny, Real and Imagined, opening September 1, will see 48 hand-colored engravings and lithographs that explore these depictions and the influence the artists had on the perception of the wild west. To learn more, visit kckplprograms.org/imprintingthewest

In 1803, President Thomas Jefferson purchased the expansive territory, known as Louisiana from Napoleon, King of France. This transaction extended the young country's boundaries by 828,000 square miles, including all of present-day Arkansas, Iowa, Kansas, Missouri, Oklahoma, and parts of Colorado, Louisiana, Minnesota, Montana, New Mexico, North Dakota, South Dakota, Texas, and Wyoming. The Louisiana Purchase set the stage for exploration, migration and settlement, in addition to struggle and conflict. Convinced that God wanted the country to extend to the Pacific Coast—the idea called "Manifest Destiny"—scores of Americans, including painters and printmakers, moved west.

The westward expansion in the nineteenth century was closely intertwined with the experiences of the native peoples. The exhibition's artists, including George Catlin and Frederic Remington, sought to document the indigenous people of the west along with migration to the west. Artists often accompanied governmental geographical surveys and created images to illustrate official publications. Others sold engravings to popular periodicals, such as Harper's Weekly, or to the mass market. Whether real or imagined, these lithographs and engravings informed the rest of America and the world about Native Americans and America's western landscapes and its natural resources.

The library is hosting an opening reception on September 7 featuring Dr. Eric Anderson, Ph.D., Professor of History at Haskell University, who will speak about the exhibit and this time in history. Other programs include a presentation by Chief Judith Manthe on September 14 about growing up Wyandot in Kansas, and a book club series focuses on Native American identity and experience. Guidance to Consumers on Insurance Company Liquidation

Topeka, Kan. — Kansas Insurance Commissioner Vicki Schmidt released a new FAQ document for consumers and agents impacted by the recent liquidation of MutualAid eXchange (MAX), a Kansas domestic insurance company, following the order of liquidation from the Shawnee County District Court.

"If you are a Kansan with a MAX policy, I encourage you to visit the Liquidation FAQ's found on the Department's website to learn more about what this means for you and how to file a proof of claim," said Commissioner Schmidt. "The Department will be working closely with the deputy liquidator and the guaranty associations in the states MAX did business to pay claims and process unearned premium refunds."

The Kansas Insurance Guaranty Association was created in statute to protect the public in the event of a failure of a property and/or casualty insurance company.

With the consent of the MAX Board of Directors, Commissioner Schmidt petitioned and received the Order of Rehabilitation on August 8. After further evaluation of the company's solvency, it was determined that liquidation is necessary to pay outstanding liabilities. The petition for liquidation was granted August 22 by Shawnee County District Court.

"Kansas maintains a robust property and casualty market with options for consumers," said Commissioner Schmidt. "Unfortunately, this company fell victim to a very tough reinsurance market and catastrophic storms throughout the nation. Impacted policyholders should work with their agent as soon as possible to obtain replacement coverage."

MAX is a domestic reciprocal or inter-insurance exchange company licensed in 28 states. They organized under the laws of the state of Kansas on January 1, 2001. They recently had approximately 30,000 policies in force nationwide, with 1,390 of those in Kansas.

To learn more about the liquidation, visit insurance.kansas.gov/legal-issues/. If you have questions regarding MAX and/or the Liquidation proceeding, call 877-971-6300, or send an email to MAXLiquidation@maxinsurance.com.

Bucks Rewarded to Drivers Who Buckle Up

TOPEKA – Thousands of vehicles will travel the Kansas roadways during the Labor Day weekend. Many families will head out on one last trip or getaway as the school year begins. Safe Kids Kansas, sponsored in part by the Kansas Department of Health and Environment, State Farm and the Kansas Department of Transportation (KDOT), wants to encourage families to buckle up and drive safely to protect their most valuable asset, their families.

This year, from August 25 through September 10, a safety belt awareness campaign called "Bucks for Buckles" is being held in 39 cities across Kansas. Local volunteers distribute dollar bills to drivers with all occupants buckled up securely in their vehicle. Those riding unrestrained will receive educational materials about the effectiveness of seat belts and child safety seats in saving lives and reducing injuries.

According to the 2022 KDOT Seat Belt Survey, 87 percent of Kansans surveyed wore seat belts. This compares to the national average of 90 percent based on the most recent NHTSA National Occupant Protection Use Survey in 2021. Kansas ranked 38 in belt use in 2021 among 50 states and the District of Columbia. Seat belts save more than 15,000 lives yearly and are the best defense against drunk, aggressive and distracted drivers.
