Social Security Applauds Passage of Legislation

The Social Security Administration (SSA) is celebrating the passage of the One Big, Beautiful Bill, a landmark piece of legislation that delivers long-awaited tax relief to millions of older Americans.

The bill ensures that nearly 90% of Social Security beneficiaries will no longer pay federal income taxes on their benefits, providing meaningful and immediate relief to seniors who have spent a lifetime contributing to our nation's economy.

"This is a historic step forward for America's seniors," said Social Security Commissioner Frank Bisignano. "For nearly 90 years, Social Security has been a cornerstone of economic security for older Americans. By significantly reducing the tax burden on benefits, this legislation reaffirms President Trump's promise to protect Social Security and helps ensure that seniors can better enjoy the retirement they've earned."

The new law includes a provision that eliminates federal income taxes on Social Security benefits for most beneficiaries, providing relief to individuals and couples.

Additionally, it provides an enhanced deduction for taxpayers aged 65 and older, ensuring that retirees can keep more of what they have earned.

Social Security remains committed to providing timely, accurate information to the public and will continue working closely with federal partners to ensure beneficiaries understand how this legislation may affect them.

Commissioner Vicki Schmidt names new Assistant Commissioner

Topeka, Kan. – Kansas Insurance Commissioner Vicki Schmidt, announced the appointment of Clay Johnson as the new Assistant Commissioner of Insurance for the Kansas Department of Insurance (KDOI). Johnson succeeds Barb Rankin, who retired earlier this month.

"Clay is a bright legal mind," said Commissioner Vicki Schmidt. "But it was his work ethic and sensible approach to regulation that made him a natural fit for this new role."

Johnson currently serves as the Assistant General Counsel for the KDOI. He started with the KDOI as a Staff Attorney in 2016. In 2019, he became the Chief Regulatory Counsel and later became the Assistant General Counsel for KDOI Legal Division in 2020.

The Department's Lead Regulatory Counsel Philip Michael will be replacing Johnson as Assistant General Counsel. Michael has worked for the State of Kansas for 11 years, including the Department of Administration Legal Services as a Staff Attorney and in the Office of the Attorney General as an Assistant Attorney General. He started working for the KDOI as the Lead Regulatory Counsel in 2022.

"I pride myself in building a team at the Department of Insurance that best serves Kansans and responsibly regulates the industries we govern," said Commissioner Vicki Schmidt. "Both Philip and Clay bring incredible knowledge, experience and professionalism to these new roles."

The Kansas Department of Insurance was established in 1871, currently led by Commissioner Vicki Schmidt. The mission of the Department is to regulate companies that sell policies in Kansas to ensure solvency and compliance with state law, educate consumers about all things insurance and securities, and advocate for a strong and competitive market to give Kansans choices when shopping for products that meet their needs

A Space for Expression, Vulnerability & Connection

Randy Callstrom, President & CEO Wyandot Behavioral Health Network

Last month, I had the privilege of hearing Dr. Ashley Smith speak at the Mental Health KC Conference. Her message about authentic connection really stayed with me — especially in today's world.

We live in a time where we are more connected than ever. Social media, texts, and video calls make it easy to stay connected and reach out to friends and family, no matter where they are. Yet, despite this digital closeness, many of us feel lonelier than ever before.

Why is that?

Dr. Smith reminded us that social media isn't a replacement for authentic connection. Likes and comments don't carry the same weight as a deep conversation with a friend. One where you can be yourself and be vulnerable.

When was the last time you had a real conversation with someone online?

A conversation where you went below the surface, to talk about the good, the bad, and the ugly? Those types of conversations are much easier and more gratifying to have in person or over a phone call, where you can be present with the other person. Authentic connection is about recognizing each other's humanity and listening to understand, not to respond.

We're living in a time where many things feel uncertain, and that is contributing to rising levels of anxiety and depression. One way to combat that is through authentic connection. Authentic connection means slowing down and making time to be with someone — not just physically, but emotionally. Having real, authentic interactions with those close to us help to keep us grounded and provide us with a sense of emotional safety. They can serve as a buffer against the stress and worry that so many of us are feeling right now. It doesn't matter if it's a phone call, a front porch chat or a deep dive conversation with a close friend. These types of interactions can replenish us.
