Bank Earnings Beat Expectations, Serving as Bellwether for a Strong Economy

Dr. Richard Baker, AIF®, is the CEO and executive wealth advisor at Fervent Wealth Management.

I read recently that a young Australian Shepherd dog was missing after a traffic accident, and everyone was to be on the lookout. Though he was a pet, his breed's original job was to herd sheep. Another great shepherding tool was the use of a bellwether, where the farmer put a bell around the neck of the lead sheep, causing the rest of the flock to stay grouped around him.

Investment-wise, big banks are often the first to report earnings each quarter and are considered bellwethers for investors. In this case, the big banks serve as a bellwether for the overall performance of the economy during the quarter. With the government shutdown stopping the release of normal economic data, earnings have become an even more important gauge of the US economy.

In the past few days, we've had the first wave of big bank and investment broker results, and so far, their earnings have been great. Most mentioned in their earnings calls that they benefited from a pickup in deal activity after the Federal Reserve (Fed) rate cut, which especially helped their investment banking divisions.

We saw Citigroup, JPMorgan Chase, Wells Fargo, and Bank of America all beat their third-quarter earnings expectatations. The average upside earnings surprise for these big banks that reported was over 7%. For the investment broker companies that reported, including Goldman Sachs, BlackRock, and Morgan Stanley, the average upside earnings surprise was over 18%, showing ongoing strength in trading and wealth management.

So far, early in this earnings reporting season, we are seeing a lot of good news. Overall, it seems that even a small Fed rate cut spurred a lot of business transactions when looking at new stock listings and mergers and acquisitions activity. Bank of America beat earnings estimates, with a 43% increase in investment banking revenue as business-to-business deal-making sped up after the Fed rate cut. Similarly, Morgan Stanley also beat their earnings estimate through an increase in trading revenue and a huge 44% increase in investment banking revenue after business activity picked up post-rate cut.

The pent-up demand for business activity was evident and took the first rate cut as a signal to make moves if their deals were going to get done before year-end. The financials sector is on track for a 17% increase in earnings year over year in Q3, second only to the technology sector, which is expected to rise 21% based on LPL estimates.

Investors are counting on continued Fed cuts in November and December, but are also keeping a watchful eye on the China/US tit-for-tat trade drama. The unresolved geopolitical risks are impossible to predict, and forecasting their financial consequences if something were to go sideways is even more difficult. The markets are strong, and though there could be a short-term pull-back, the markets should end the year well and keep riding this three-year-old bull market.

These banks produced huge profits this quarter, and seem to be signaling that they anticipate a boom if rate cuts continue. If this bellwether is an early indication of a strong earnings reporting season, then it might not be too early to say the S&P 500 is well on its way to low-teens earnings per share growth for the quarter. Investors sure hope so.

The Australian Shepherd dog that had been lost during the traffic accident was found a few days later at a sheep farm, herding sheep. That dog got ejected out of car straight into his dream job! I don't know if he was herding the sheep in the right direction, but I bet he was having a great time doing it. Hopefully, the big banks' strong bellwether is leading us all in the right direction.

Have a blessed week!

WHEREAS, the Petition was signed by the required number of owners of record, whether resident or not, as required by the Act; and

WHEREAS, the Unified Government of Wyandotte County/Kansas City, Kansas (the "Unified Government") intends to consider creation of the CID and levying the CID Sales Tax as requested in the Petition; and

WHEREAS, the Unified Government's Board of Commissioners (the "Governing Body") hereby finds and determines it to be necessary to direct and order a public hearing on the advisability of creating the CID, approving the Project, and levying the CID Sales Tax pursuant to the authority of the Act and further to provide for the giving of notice of said hearing in the manner required by the Act.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE UNIFIED GOVERNMENT BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS, AS FOLLOWS:

SECTION 1. Petition. The Governing Body hereby finds and determines that the Petition meets the requirements of the Act.

SECTION 2. Public Hearing. It is hereby authorized, ordered, and directed that the Governing Body shall hold a public hearing, in accordance with the provisions of the Act, on the advisability of creating the CID, approving the Project set forth in Petition, and whether to levy the CID Sales Tax, such public hearing to be held on November 6, 2025, at 7:00 p.m., or as soon thereafter as the matter can be heard, in the Commission Chambers, at the lobby level of the Municipal Office Building, 701 North 7th Street, Kansas City, Kansas, under the authority of the Act.
