A story from my childhood

When I was in primary school in Nsukka, a university town in south-eastern Nigeria, my teacher said at the beginning of term that she would give the class a test and whoever got the highest score would be the class monitor. Class monitor was a big deal. If you were class monitor, you would write down the names of noise-makers each day, which was heady enough power on its own, but my teacher would also give you a cane to hold in your hand while you walked around and patrolled the class for noise-makers. Of course, you were not allowed to actually use the cane. But it was an exciting prospect for the nine-year-old me. I very much wanted to be class monitor. And I got the highest score on the test. Then, to my surprise, my teacher said the monitor had to be a boy. She had forgotten to make that clear earlier; she assumed it was obvious. A boy had the second-highest score on the test. And he would be monitor. What was even more interesting is that this boy was a sweet, gentle soul who had no interest in patrolling the class with a stick. While I was full of ambition to do so. But I was female and he was male and he became class monitor. I have never forgotten that incident. If we do something over and over again, it becomes normal. If we see the same thing over and over again, it becomes normal. If only boys are made class monitor, then at some point we will all think, even if unconsciously, that the class monitor has to be a boy. If we keep seeing only men as heads of corporations, it starts to seem 'natural' that only men should be heads of corporations.

of record Mario J. Moore Ramirez, and for her Petition for Determination of Paternity, pursuant to the Kansas parentage act (K.S.A. 23-2201 through 23-2225), and in support of said Petition, Petitioner states the following:

- 1. That Petitioner, Maria Elizabeth Navarro is the natural mother of the minor child: William Winkel, DOB: September 17, 2017. 2. The Respondent has been residents of the State of Iowa for a period in excess of ninety (90) days next preceding the commencement of this action, and since February 2021 is nowhere to be found by Petitioner. 5. The minor child, William Winkel, DOB: September 17, 2017, has resided since birth until the present date with Petitioner. 6. Petitioner and Respondent engaged in sexual intercourse with each other, on or about the time of conception of the minor child. 7. Jurisdiction is proper in Wyandotte County as Petitioner has resided in Wyandotte County with the minor child over 90 days prior to filing the Petition for determination of Paternity. 8. This Court is competent to decide child custody matters, and has jurisdiction to make child custody determinations concerning the child. The State of Kansas is the home state of the child at the time of the commencement of the proceeding; and that it is in the best interest of the minor child that this court assume jurisdiction because the child and their parents have significant connections with the State of Kansas. Specifically, Wyandotte County, Kansas, and there is available with the state substantial evidence concerning the child's present and future care, protection, training, and personal relationships.

9. It is in the best interest of the minor child, William Winkel, that the Petitioner be awarded Sole legal and physical custody of the minor child for the following reasons:

- A) That since February 2021, Respondent has not been involved in the minor child's life. B) That since February 2021, Respondent has not called the minor child. C) That since February 2021, Respondent has not visited the minor child. D) That since February 2021, Respondent has not financially assisted the minor child. E) That Respondent is unfit by reason of conduct or condition which renders the parents unable to care properly for the child and the conduct or condition is unlikely to change in the foreseeable future. F) That Respondent has abandoned the minor child. G) It is not in the best interest of the minor child to be in the custody of the Respondent. H) The Petitioner is fit, able and eagerly willing to have sole custody of the minor child. 10. That Respondent, Curtis Lee Winkel should be declared as the natural and biological father, and thereafter, Respondent's rights should be terminated over the minor child, William Winkel.

WHEREFORE, Petitioner prays for an order of this Court Declaring Petitioner, Maria Elizabeth Navarro, to be the natural and biological Mother of the minor child; An order of this Court Declaring Respondent, Curtis Lee Winkel, to be the natural and biological Father of the minor child; Order awarding Petitioner sole legal and sole physical custody of the minor child and designating the minor child's address as the same address of the Petitioner for mailing and educational purposes; and for such other relief as the court deems just and necessary.

COUNT II - CHILD SUPPORT

COMES NOW the Petitioner, and for Count II of his Petition for Child Custody and Child Support, states to the Court as follows:

- 1. Petitioner Re-alleges and incorporates by reference, as if set forth herein, allegations one (1) through ten (10) of Count I of this Counter Petition, as written above. 2. Petitioner and Respondent have a legal obligation to provide for the minor child. 3. That Petitioner is aware that requesting termination of parental rights towards Respondent shall as well terminate any future child support for the minor child and being advised of this, Petitioner still wishes to proceed with termination.
