The 30-Year Treasury Yield Is Back Above 5%—And That's Not A Crisis

Dr. Richard Baker, AIF®, is the CEO and executive wealth advisor at Fervent Wealth Management.

When my wife and I were first married, I worried about storms. Of course, our incomes were low, and any damage from wind or a leak would have certainly shocked our budget. Most nights I would lie awake nervous about what I'd find the next morning. I think a lot of young investors feel that way right now as they live with higher interest rates than they ever have, and it is impacting their investing worldview.

I'm reading several analysts who are worried about the 30-year Treasury yield, using words like "rout" or "new normal." I also wonder if they are just trying to get attention online, or maybe they haven't been doing investments long enough to see the cycle come back around. Either way, I'm not surprised by the bond yields, and I'm not concerned about it. Interest rates are just returning to the historical norm.

On August 18, the 30-year U.S. Treasury yield hit 5.339%, its highest since 2007, according to the Wall Street Journal. The last time the long-term Treasury yields were at this level, we were buying the first iPhone for $500, or $600 if you wanted 8GB. The 10-year U.S. Treasury yield hit almost 4.7% this week, which was near its highest level in over a year. None of these upward yield moves were sudden or shocking, despite the doom and gloom you are seeing on social media this week.

Besides the cheap iPhones, what else happened in 2007 and 2008? The financial crisis (where dumb bank loans were made without verifying income) crashed, causing the U.S. housing bubble to burst. The Federal Reserve (Fed) dropped rates to almost zero, and the government handed out tons of money to families and bailed out these banks to the tune of almost $650 billion.

What we are seeing now is rates near where they should be, and yields are finally going back to normal after the near-zero rate era following the 2008 financial panic. Today's higher-than-recent yields reflect the unwinding of abnormal conditions.

The Fed is being patient and is supporting this situation. It has held rates steady for five consecutive meetings, even amid economic volatility, suggesting it would take something significant to raise rates.

Though it may sound frightening to say rates are higher than they've been in 20 years, the past two decades were an abnormal era. For all those people waiting for rates to "go back to normal." This is normal, and what you saw in the 2010s and early 2020s was abnormal compared with long-term historical prices. The U.S. economy took a while to revert to normal, but it has not only survived but thrived with these higher interest rates.

No need to freak out; look at it through a wider lens and understand it is resetting the global financial system to its pre-2008 level.

My wife and I have been married just a few weeks shy of thirty years, and we have weathered several storms. I don't worry about them anymore. Sure, we have a nicer house and more financial flexibility to deal with damage, but that isn't the reason I no longer worry. After so many years, you realize storm damage is rare, and nowadays we enjoy listening to a good storm while we read. It is the same with investing. I guess I have been doing it long enough to have a broader investing worldview, understand what normal really is, and know that a balanced portfolio is pretty storm-resistant. At this point in my career, it takes a lot to rattle or surprise me. The current yields don't do either.

Have a blessed week.

LEGAL NOTICE

IN THE MATTER OF THE MURILLO-LONG/LONG MARRIAGE

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF WYANDOTTE COUNTY, KANSAS CIVIL COURT DEPARTMENT In the Matter of the Marriage of: CATALINA MURILLO-LONG, Petitioner and THEODORE S. LONG, Respondent

Case No. WY-2025-DM-000973

PETITION FOR DIVORCE

COMES NOW the Petitioner, Catalina Murillo-Long, by and through her attorney, Joseph A. DeWoskin, and for her Petition for Divorce states and alleges to the Court:

1. Petitioner is and has been a resident of the State of Kansas for more than sixty (60) days immediately preceding the filing of her petition currently residing at 2840 N. 45th Terrace, Kansas City, Kansas 66104.

2. To the best of Petitioner's knowledge Respondent is currently residing at 1006 Grand Blvd., Apt 303, Kansas City, Missouri 64106.

3. The parties were lawfully married on October 5, 2013, in Kansas City, Wyandotte County, Kansas; and have been husband and wife since that date.

4. The parties separated on or around May 2016.

5. Petitioner is currently employed by Aquinas Home Health.

6. Respondent's employment status is unknown.

7. There was one child born of said marriage of Petitioner and Respondent, and subject to jurisdiction of this Court to wit: J.L., born in 2012.

8. Petitioner is not now pregnant.

9. The minor child currently resides with Petitioner at her address and has since August 2018 and has lived in Kansas for at least six months prior to the filing of this Petition.

10. Petitioner knows of no other custody proceedings concerning the minor child that is currently pending in this state or any other state.

11. Petitioner has not participated in any litigation concerning the custody of said child in this state or any other state.

12. Petitioner knows of no other person not a party to this proceeding having physical custody of the minor child or visitation rights or claiming to have such rights in regard to said child.

13. The best interest of the minor child dictates that Petitioner should be granted sole legal custody and sole physical custody with Petitioner having primary residential custody of the minor child with Respondent being granted no parenting time in that it has been over four years since Respondent had any interaction with the minor child.

14. Presumably Respondent is employed at a substantial wage and child support should be awarded for the benefit of the minor child pursuant to Kansas law and Kansas Child Support Guidelines.

15. Petitioner is employed at a substantial wage and Respondent, it is believed, is employed at a substantial wage and it is Petitioner's belief that Respondent is able to care for himself and no maintenance should be awarded from Petitioner to Respondent. Furthermore, due to the length of separation of the parties, it is unlikely that either party would be able to meet the statutory requirement to prove the need of maintenance so neither party should be ordered to pay maintenance one to the other.

16. There is no reasonable likelihood that the marriage of Petitioner and Respondent can be preserved and, therefore, the marriage is irretrievably broken.

DOC_147495510 (1).pdf

17. Both parties should be responsible for his or her own attorney fees unless Respondent takes action that intentionally increases Petitioner's attorney fees.

18. Petitioner and Respondent have accumulated property during the course of the marriage, as well as certain debts, and Petitioner requests that the marital property and debts be divided in a fair and equitable manner.

19. Petitioner is not a member of the Armed Forces of the United States.

20. Respondent is not a member of the Armed Forces of the United States.

21. Petitioner be ordered to pay the costs of this action.

22. Petitioner requests that she be returned to her maiden name of Catalina Murillo.

WHEREFORE, Petitioner prays that the marriage of Petitioner and Respondent be dissolved; that the marital property and marital debts be divided in a fair and equitable manner; that the Petitioner's separate property be set aside to the Petitioner; that the Respondent's separate property be set aside to the Respondent; for the Petitioner to be awarded sole legal and sole physical custody of the minor child with Petitioner having primary residential custody and her address being used for educational and mailing purposes, with no parenting time being granted to Respondent, that child support be ordered to be paid in accordance with Kansas law and Kansas Child Support Guidelines; that Petitioner not be ordered to pay maintenance to Respondent and that Respondent not be ordered to pay maintenance to Petitioner; that Petitioner and Respondent be responsible for their individual attorney fees, unless Respondent takes action that intentionally increases Petitioner's attorney fees; that Petitioner be ordered to pay the costs of this action; that Petitioner be returned to her maiden name of Catalina Murillo; and for other and further orders, judgments and decrees as may seem just and proper.

Respectfully Submitted:
