Why Is the U.S. Economy So Strong Despite Inflation and Debt?

Dr. Richard Baker, AIF®, is the CEO and executive wealth advisor at Fervent Wealth Management

A recent viral video showed someone putting weight on top of a single-filled plastic Coke bottle. It was amazing to watch them keep adding steel plate after steel plate, yet the Coke bottle kept holding up without collapsing, even up to 1,220 pounds. As the video continues, I wondered, "How long can this thing hold up?" Many are asking the same question about the market right now.

One of my clients was shocked at how much her account had grown this year and said, "How can it keep growing like this?" Investors around the country have been asking a similar question. How can the U.S. economy be this strong with continued inflation issues, the government hitting yet another debt milestone because of its out-of-control deficits, and geopolitical risks that never seem to go away? Yet somehow, despite all these speed bumps, the economy and stock markets are not only stable but thriving.

I see two reasons supporting the economy. First, the U.S. economy's financial stress looks better than the rest of the world's problems, and second, inflation continues to trend lower.

First, the U.S.'s problems look good compared to the rest of the world

My wife and I have a joke that if we ever feel bad about our life, we need to go mix it up with the Wal-Mart crowd for a while until we remember how good we have it. That is about how it is with the U.S. economy. The U.S. economy has the least financial stress compared to all developed and emerging markets. The Chicago Federal Reserve has a report called the National Financial Conditions Index (NFCI), which measures America's stocks, bank loans, money markets, and overall banking system. The report shows the U.S. economy at a negative number, indicating it is not currently experiencing financial stress. Although rates may feel high and loans hard to get, the report shows that interest rates and financial market conditions are favorable for businesses, families, and investors.

Second, Inflation Conditions Improved Since May

Although inflation is still above the Fed's two percent target, it is trending down. Inflation looked on track in February until the Iran war shook up oil prices. Prices started inching up in March, April, and May but have since come down. Since May, every category (Import Prices, Producer Prices, Services Price Index, Manufacturing Price Index, Global Supply Chain Pressure Index, Gasoline Prices: U.S. Average, Consumer Prices (CPI), CPI Excluding Housing, Rent Prices (CPI), and PCE Deflator) has fallen steadily month by month. If this continues, overall inflation could hit the Fed's target in the first half of 2027.

For investors, these supports, along with continued strong demand for U.S. Treasuries, suggest underlying market conditions remain strong. Conditions are still favorable for economic activity and profit.

That's not to say there won't be volatility, because there always is during the last half of a bull run. But all in all, it looks like there is still room for the bull to run. I have my accounts slightly more conservative than normal before midterm elections in case I see opportunities, but I see no reason to be in a defensive posture.

The plastic Coke bottle finally collapsed at 1,280 pounds, spraying Coca-Cola™ all over the floor. It was incredibly impressive, and no one watching believed it would withstand nearly that much weight, much like our current economy. The next time I am changing my tire I might use a case of Coke instead of a jack stand. The problem at my house is my wife is so addicted to Coca-Cola™, so it may be difficult finding full bottles.

Have a blessed week.

IN THE MATTER OF THE MURILLO-LONG/LONG MARRIAGE

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF WYANDOTTE COUNTY, KANSAS CIVIL COURT DEPARTMENT In the Matter of the Marriage of: CATALINA MURILLO-LONG, Petitioner and THEODORE S. LONG, Respondent

Case No. WY-2025-DM-000973
PETITION FOR DIVORCE
COMES NOW the Petitioner, Catalina Murillo-Long, by and through her attorney, Joseph A. DeWoskin, and for her Petition for Divorce states and alleges to the Court:

1. Petitioner is and has been a resident of the State of Kansas for more than sixty (60) days immediately preceding the filing of her petition currently residing at 2840 N. 45th Terrace, Kansas City, Kansas 66104.
2. To the best of Petitioner's knowledge Respondent is currently residing at 1006 Grand Blvd., Apt 303, Kansas City, Missouri 64106.

3. The parties were lawfully married on October 5, 2013, in Kansas City, Wyandotte County, Kansas; and have been husband and wife since that date.

4. The parties separated on or around May 2016.

5. Petitioner is currently employed by Aquinas Home Health.

6. Respondent's employment status is unknown.

7. There was one child born of said marriage of Petitioner and Respondent, and subject to jurisdiction of this Court to wit: J.L., born in 2012.

8. Petitioner is not now pregnant.
9. The minor child currently resides with Petitioner at her address and has since August 2018 and has lived in Kansas for at least six months prior to the filing of this Petition.

10. Petitioner knows of no other custody proceedings concerning the minor child that is currently pending in this state or any other state.

11. Petitioner has not participated in any litigation concerning the custody of said child in this state or any other state.

12. Petitioner knows of no other person not a party to this proceeding having physical custody of the minor child or visitation rights or claiming to have such rights in regard to said child.

13. The best interest of the minor child dictates that Petitioner should be granted sole legal custody and sole physical custody with Petitioner having primary residential custody of the minor child with Respondent being granted no parenting time in that it has been over four years since Respondent had any interaction with the minor child.

14. Presumably Respondent is employed at a substantial wage and child support should be awarded for the benefit of the minor child pursuant to Kansas law and Kansas Child Support Guidelines.

15. Petitioner is employed at a substantial wage and Respondent, it is believed, is employed at a substantial wage and it is Petitioner's belief that Respondent is able to care for himself and no maintenance should be awarded from Petitioner to Respondent. Furthermore, due to the length of separation of the parties, it is unlikely that either party would be able to meet the statutory requirement to prove the need of maintenance so neither party should be ordered to pay maintenance one to the other.

16. There is no reasonable likelihood that the marriage of Petitioner and Respondent can be preserved and, therefore, the marriage is irretrievably broken.

DOC_147495510 (1).pdf

17. Both parties should be responsible for his or her own attorney fees unless Respondent takes action that intentionally increases Petitioner's attorney fees.

18. Petitioner and Respondent have accumulated property during the course of the marriage, as well as certain debts, and Petitioner requests that the marital property and debts be divided in a fair and equitable manner.

19. Petitioner is not a member of the Armed Forces of the United States.

20. Respondent is not a member of the Armed Forces of the United States.

21. Petitioner be ordered to pay the costs of this action.

22. Petitioner requests that she be returned to her maiden name of Catalina Murillo.

WHEREFORE, Petitioner prays that the marriage of Petitioner and Respondent be dissolved; that the marital property and marital debts be divided in a fair and equitable manner; that the Petitioner's separate property be set aside to the Petitioner; that the Respondent's separate property be set aside to the Respondent; for the Petitioner to be awarded sole legal and sole physical custody of the minor child with Petitioner having primary residential custody and her address being used for educational and mailing purposes, with no parenting time being granted to Respondent, that child support be ordered to be paid in accordance with Kansas law and Kansas Child Support Guidelines; that Petitioner not be ordered to pay maintenance to Respondent and that Respondent not be ordered to pay maintenance to Petitioner; that Petitioner and Respondent be responsible for their individual attorney fees, unless Respondent takes action that intentionally increases Petitioner's attorney fees; that Petitioner be ordered to pay the costs of this action; that Petitioner be returned to her maiden name of Catalina Murillo;
